PRAYING FOR THE HOLY SOULS DURING NOVEMBER

It is our Catholic belief that it is our duty and a good and holy thing to pray for the Dead, whom we call the Holy Souls .

If you wish to include the names of your deceased family and friends in the November Dead List, please put in the form provided listing names for whom we are to pray and give to Fr.Bill, OSM.
The Book of Remembrance is on the altar during every celebration of Holy Mass throughout the month of November and all those whose names are inscribed are remembered daily in the Priest's intention at Holy Mass.

Although prayers for the dead are inscribed in some Roman catacombs from early Christian centuries the Church was slow to dedicate a liturgical day to offering prayers and Holy Mass to help them attain the Beatific Vision through purification, later described as Purgatory. The first example of this commemoration seems to be in the time of Isidore of Seville who died in AD 636, the day assigned being Monday after Pentecost. Its observance became universal through the influence of Odilo of Cluny, who in 998 commanded its annual celebration in the Benedictine houses of his congregation. In England at least four ancient dedications to All Souls are known, the most famous of which are All Souls College, Oxford, and All Souls, Langham Place, London.

THE CUSTOM IN BATH OF THE NOVEMBER CELEBRATION AT THE HISTORIC CATHOLIC CEMETERIES OF PERRYMEAD & HAYCOMBE DOWN OF HOLY MASS FOR THE HOLY SOULS always at 10.00am and on Saturday during Nov – a rather special experience of prayer - those with cars are urged to help non-car drivers to get to the cemeteries or ask fr.Bill for help to go there. On Saturday 17th Nov when it will be Sts.Peter & Paul, Fr.Bill's parish's turn to provide readers, music and servers you might like to help.

On Monday 12th Nov 2007 at 7.15pm in The Michael Tippett Centre, Bath Spa University, Newton Park, Bath, BA2 9BN, The Catholic Chaplaincy Lecture for 2007 at BSU presented by Catholic Chaplaincy at BSU & UOB to Higher Education in Bath in conjunction with Cathsocs at Bath Spa University & University of BATH Light refreshments in MTC Bar from 6.30pm.

For music lovers the lecture is offered in the sesquicentenary (150th year) of Elgar's birth - a lecture recital on the life, music and faith of the pre-eminent English Catholic composer of modern times, given by Ben Saul. This lecture will consider – with Power Point presentation, cd and grand piano - the resources Elgar drew upon to shape his major sacred choral works, examine the pressures felt by a Catholic musician working in nineteenth century England and chart Elgar's struggles with his faith as expressed in his music.

Guest speaker: Ben Saul is Teaching Professor in Music Therapy and Keyboard Harmony at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama. Ben works as a choral conductor, recitalist, accompanist, music therapist and lecturer across the United Kingdom.

then you are simply too busy!*

CONFIRMATION 2007 preparation:

If any students at University of Bath & BSU have not yet been Confirmed, and would like to prepare for the sacrament of confirmation, then please speak to Fr.Bill, OSM as soon as possible.

Father Bill asks how do we think we can welcome others to share our Faith with us in our University community? You will find much to nourish your own faith in Cathsoc who are a great group of fun loving but faithful Catholics, at the Sunday noon gathering here for Holy Mass and time together and in much that happens on the U of Bath and BSU Campuses and in the City. Make sure you get in touch and feel welcome and also make others welcome to be with us.

WEDDINGS may seem far off but you'd be surprised how quickly they come after student days :

Those thinking of marriage should make an appointment with their Parish Priest in their home parish or the priest preparing their wedding elsewhere to speak about this wonderful and important step. This should be done before other preparations are considered, for the Church requires the couple to prepare sensibly and seriously at least 6 months prior to the planned date.
